

Candidate for Constable

Cindy Franco

Cindy Franco, a 34-year resident of New Canaan who has long been active in a variety of town programs, is running for re-election as constable. In the town, she was a volunteer at the Waveny Care Center, providing physical therapy to the residents. A member of St. Aloysius Church during her 34 years, she developed the first music education program at the school in 1995 and served as a part-time volunteer introducing parents to the school. She is also one of the founding members of Spencer's Run, attending weekly meetings with Park and Recreation officials and the town council for more than a year. Married, she has a grown daughter.

Professionally, she has worked in the fashion industry for more than 20 years, rising from the cutting rooms to the show rooms, before moving into fashion production and radio and television work. In her broadcasting work, she was a member of AFTRA and SAG. Her fashion background also includes work in the bridal industry where she specialized in helping brides find original gowns, working with Couture designers in New York City.
