

Candidate for Constable

Nick Mitrakis

Nicholas is a corporate finance executive with 18 years experience at large, global firms where he is and has been responsible for corporate finance & accounting, mergers & acquisitions as well as P&L responsibility.

Nicholas is a graduate of Fordham University and has worked and lived in Germany, NYC, Dallas and London, UK. He and his wife Kristen moved to New Canaan in 2010 with their daughter Katherine, who currently attends Saxe Middle School.

He is an advisory board member of the Fordham University Alumni Association, he is on the board of Financial Executives International in NYC, an advisory board member of FinTech startup Cashforce and a member of the New Canaan Democratic Town Committee and Nominating Committee. He previously served as a New Canaan Constable from 2011-2013.